a group of like-minded visionaries had the foresight to establish a community of graduate professionals called the Professional Provident Society, or PPS.

You now qualify to join this exclusive community, the 1% that is South Africa's graduate professionals.

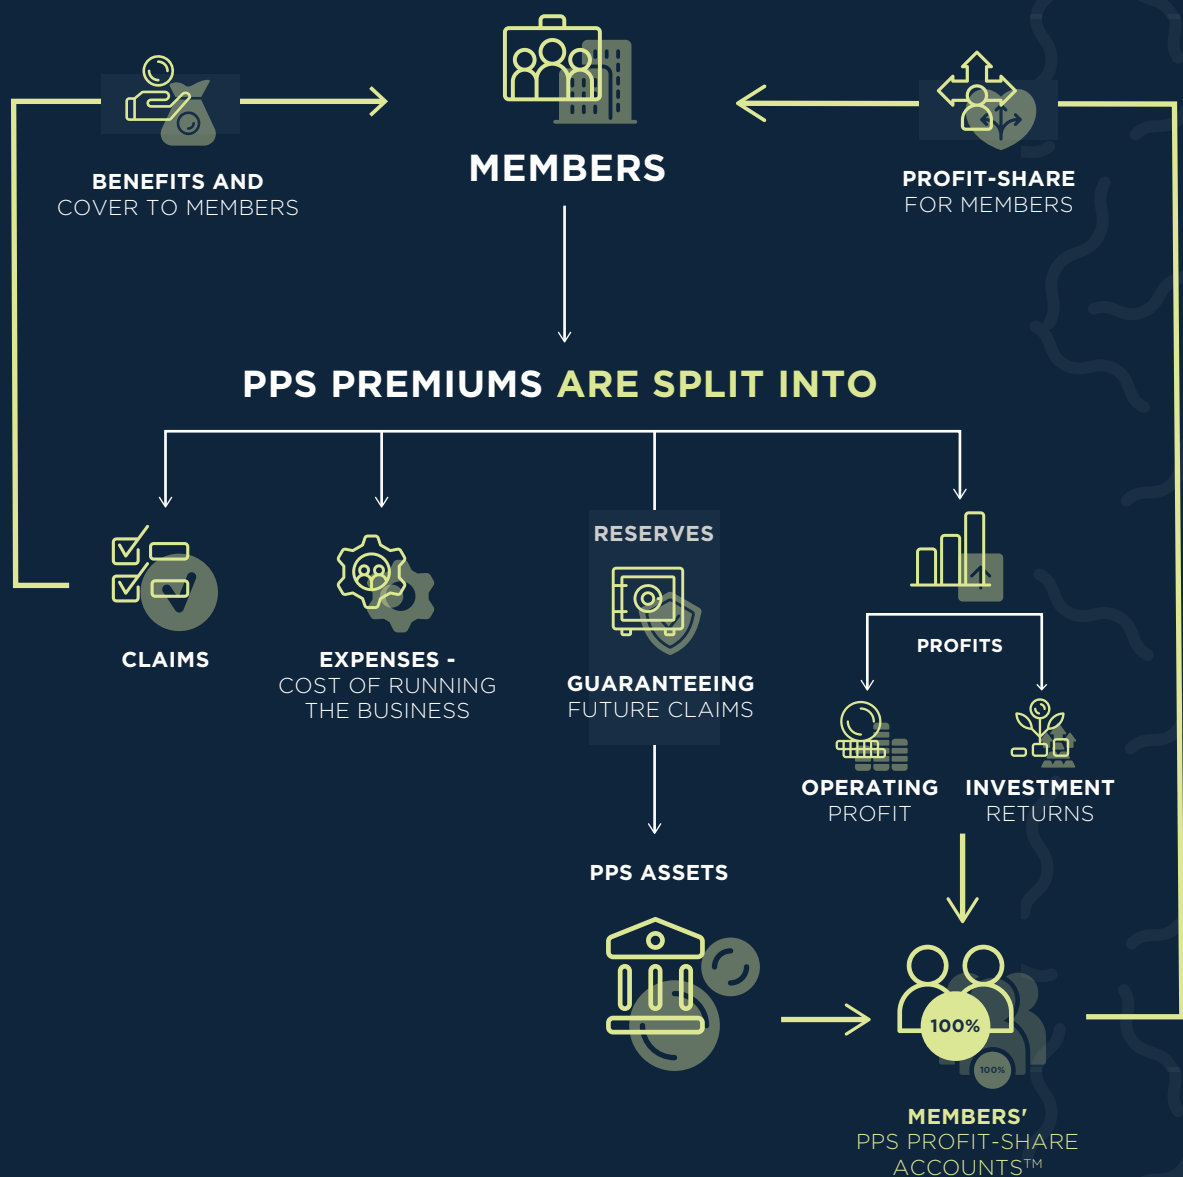

The members of this community are committed to protecting their dreams and living the lifestyle they desire from when they start their careers, right through to retirement.

CIRCLE OF MUTUALITY

The PPS community believes in sharing wealth and success. Members with qualifying products each have their own PPS Profit-Share Account™ where shared profits are invested during their working life into retirement.
